Re: IGR Clearinghouse Bulletin No. 012784

The tentative calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for February is attached (see colored sheets). The calendar is intended only to supplement routine notification procedures and may not be all inclusive. With two state holidays in February, state offices will be closed on February 13 and 20. The calendar for March will be included with the February 24 bulletin. State agencies are therefore requested to have information to the Citizens' Advocate office by February 15.

The following pages list all items received in the Clearinghouse since our last bulletin with a brief summary or description of same. Each is coded with a "State Application Identifier" -an SAI number. For your information, the first two digits of the SAI number are the state identification - MT for Montana. The next six digits you can readily identify as the date the item reached the Clearinghouse office - i.e. MT012084 would indicate we had received it in the Montana office on January 20, 1984. Then, following the hyphen, the next three digits are the sequential file number and the last alphabetical digit is our code file for the requirements of Presidential Executive Order No. 12372.

Should you wish to pursue in more detail any of the items listed in the attached bulletin, you may use the request form below, sending it to the Clearinghouse as indicated or sending it to the contact person listed in the project summary. Requests for information should be place by February 2, 1984 so material can be forwarded to you in a timely manner for comment.

State agencies are again reminded to have the information they wish to include in the calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for the month of March sent to the Citizens' Advocate office by FEBRUARY 15. We are still receiving notices for meetings scheduled the first week of February, and of course, such information at this time is not practical to send out.

While federal agency implementation of Presidential Executive Order 12372 is still in the process of being clarified, the Clearinghouse procedures are as follows:

1. Applicants should notify the Clearinghouse concerning their proposals as early as possible by submitting a notice of intent, the complete application, or an abstract including a preferred date for comments.
2. The Clearinghouse will assign an SAI number (State Application Identifier) and provide statewide notification through the Bulletin, referring reviewers to the applicant.
3. Any comments received should be incorporated into the application or submitted by the applicant to the federal agency, filing copies with the Clearinghouse. For the time being, no "signoff" from the Clearinghouse is required, but the SAI number and Bulletin notification are essential.

Should you wish to pursue in more detail any of the items listed in the attached bulletin, you may use the request form below, sending it to the Clearinghouse as indicated or sending it to the contact person listed in the project summary. Requests for information should be placed by FEBRUARY 9, 1984 so material can be forwarded to you in a timely manner for comment.

2. The Clearinghouse will acknowledge receipt by letter, assign an SAI number, and provide statewide notification through the IGR Bulletin. Inquiries and reviewers will be referred to the applicant for further information.
3. Any comments received should be incorporated into the application and submitted by the applicant to the funding agency with the application. Copies should be filed with the Clearinghouse.

Re: Bulletin No. 022484

The tentative calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for the month of March, 1984 is attached (see colored sheets). As mentioned before, the calendar is intended only to supplement routine notification procedures and may not be all inclusive. You are advised to confirm or obtain more details from the agency contact person listed for each meeting.

An increasing number of applications and preapplications are being received in the Clearinghouse office concurrent with their submission to the federal funding agency. Aware that many federal agencies are supplying instructions to that effect, it is still the contention of this office that early notification of pending submissions would in many instances be preferred and most beneficial to the applicant. Notification to potentially interested parties early in the planning process provides the opportunity: (1) to incorporate positive suggestions into the proposal; (2) to be alerted to potential problems; (3) to decrease the possibility of proposal rejection at the federal level; and (4) to all but eliminate the necessity of amendment to the proposal submitted - or resubmission, oftentimes too late for consideration in that funding cycle. Early notification of intent to apply for federal financial assistance is encouraged.

Should you wish to pursue in more detail any of the items listed in the attached bulletin, you may use the request form below, sending it to the Clearinghouse as indicated, or to the contact person listed in the project summary.

The Montana IGR Clearinghouse procedures in effect while federal agency implementation of Presidential Executive Order 12372 is still in the process of being clarified are again being cited for your information.

1. Applicants should notify the Clearinghouse as early in their planning process as possible concerning their proposals. Submit a notice of intent, complete application, or an abstract including a preferred date for the return of comments from reviewers.
2. The Clearinghouse will acknowledge receipt by letter, assign an SAI number and provide statewide notification through the IGR bulletin. Inquiries and reviewers will be referred to the applicant for further information.
3. Any comments received should be incorporated into the application and submitted by the applicant to the funding agency with the application. Copies of comments should be filed with the Clearinghouse.

The tentative calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for the month of April, 1984 is attached (see colored sheets). A few late March dates are also listed - note in particular the change of location listed for the meeting on March 28th. This calendar is intended only to supplement routine notification procedures and may not be all inclusive. A contact person for each agency is listed. You are advised to confirm or obtain more details from them.

Spring always seems to bring with it a noticeable increase in the number of proposals submitted to the Clearinghouse for processing. Once again, we encourage early notification of intent to apply for federal financial assistance. Applicants should notify the Clearinghouse concerning proposals as early as possible in the planning process. Submit a notice of intent - the first page of the Financial Assistance Application Form (Standard Form 424) and a short narrative concerning the proposal; or an abstract indicating purpose, dollar amounts, contact person, address and phone number, and preferred date for return of comments; or a complete copy of the application. This information is used for the statewide notification provided through this bulletin.

You may use the request form below if you wish to pursue in more detail any item listed in the attached bulletin. Requests for information should be made by March 30 so material can be sent to you in time for review and/or comment.

MT840328-464-X The Town of Thompson Falls submitted their preapplication for federal financial assistance to the Farmers Home Administration to improve their sewage treatment lagoon. Presently, their system is essentially inoperable due to excessive leakage. The town participated in the EPA 201 construction grants program by having Stahly Engineering and Associates prepare a Facilities Plan and design improvements. The project consisted of connecting the present conventional lagoon into a 2-cell aerated lagoon system followed by a phase-isolation system comprised of four smaller settling ponds for suspended solids reduction. The dikes and the bottom of the ponds are to be sealed with a PVC liner. The town called for bids on the project several years ago, however the bids received were above the budgeted amount. Now, on the fundable portion of the EPA Construction Grants list, they are eligible for a 75% ($281,000) EPA grant and are requesting an FmHA loan for the balance of $94,000. For additional information, you may contact:

MT840330-468-F U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, sent a newsletter concerning their present procedures in revising their Kootenai National Forest Plan. Due to the Ninth Circuit Court's ruling in late 1982, that the Roadless Area Review Evaluation (RARE II) in California was invalid, the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture determined that all roadless areas on all national forests would be reevaluated for wilderness through the forest planning process. Kootenai National Forest plan to have their National Forest Plan Draft Environmental Impact Statement out to the public for review this fall. MT840405-483-F Governor Schwinden has been advised by the Office of the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury that legislation reauthorizing the Revenue Sharing Program through September 30, 1986 was recently signed by President Reagan. The Office of Revenue Sharing has used the following data of record in calculating Montana's Revenue Sharing Initial Allocation for Entitlement Period 15 (October 1, 1983 to September 30, 1984):

1982 Population	804,000
1980 Urbanized Population	208,619
1979 Per Capita Income	$6,589
FY 82 State & Local Tax Collect'ns	$965,400,000
1981 Aggregate Personal Income	$7,357,000,000
FY 82 Gen. Tax Effort Factor (State & Local Taxes divided by Aggregate Personal Income)	.13122
1982 State Individual Income Tax Collections	$136,218,000
1981 Federal Individual Income Tax Liabilities	$775,535,000

Congress did not include State Governments in the renewed program. The data listed above were used to determine the amount of revenue sharing funds that will be allocated to local governments in Montana for Entitlement Period 15. Montana local governments will be allocated $19,762,201.00. The Bureau of the Census, the Bureau of Economic Analysis and the Internal Revenue Service provided the data to the Office of Revenue Sharing.

Re: IGR Bulletin No. 041384

The calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for the month of May will be prepared shortly. Once again, we are requesting state agencies wishing to have meeting dates publicized in the bulletin to get their information to the office of the Citizen's Advocate in time to prepare the material for printing. The calendar is much handier than the fragmented notices received too late and necessarily listed separately in later bulletins. May we have your calendar information by April 20th? Agency - Date - Topic - Location - Contact Person - & Phone Number -

Should you wish to pursue in more detail any of the items listed in the attached bulletin, you may use the request form below, sending it to the Clearinghouse as indicated, or sending it directly to the contact person listed in the project summary. Requests for information should be placed by April 21, 1984 so material can be forwarded to you in a timely manner for comment.

MT840410-489-F A news bulletin from the Wyoming Bureau of Land Management briefly outlines the Bureau's plans to prevent the unlawful removal of sand, gravel or scoria from lands where the surface rights have been transferred but the mineral rights legally reserved for the federal government. On June 6, 1983, the U.S. Supreme Court determined that sand, gravel and scoria were minerals. This decision affects some 33 million acres of land in at least 19 states (Montana included). The affected lands were originally under federal ownership before the surface rights were transferred to interested persons under the 1916 Stock Raising Homestead Act. That Act was revoked in 1976 under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act. A copy of this bulletin is available from the Clearinghouse upon request.

MT840410-490-F The Bureau of Land Management District Office in Butte, Montana sent to the Clearinghouse a copy of their bulletin seeking nominations for the livestock operator portion of their cooperative management initiative. Through Cooperative Management Agreements (CMAs), the Bureau is seeking to involve more members of the using public in the management of various public resources. The CMA Program is designed to provide selected operators with a larger role in managing grazing on their allotments and giving them the assurance of tenure needed to encourage private investment in rangeland improvements. They are soliciting nominations of qualified individuals or groups. This bulletin briefly outlines the conditions to be met for such nominations. A copy will be sent to you upon request.

MT840410-491-X Human Resources Council, District XII, of Butte, will apply to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services for continuation of their Butte Head Start Program. This is a comprehensive pre-school program for approximately 150 eligible children and their families living in Silver Bow County. Information about the program may be obtained from:

MT840420-492-F The Miles City District Office of the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Department of the Interior, published a Big Dry Resource Area Rangeland Program Summary Update, March 1984. The update has been prepared to reflect the current status of the area program and to summarize changes which have occurred since the Rangeland Program Summary was published in December, 1982. The area rangeland program was analyzed in three vegetation allocation Environmental Impact Statements (Big Dry, Missouri Breaks and Prairie Potholes).

The transfer of public land administration in Daniels, Roosevelt and Sheridan Counties to the area occured during 1983. A summary of the status of allotments when they were transferred is included. Changes in the allotment status which have occurred since the Rangeland Program Summaries (RPSs) (Big Dry Resource Area, December 1982; Prairie Potholes Rangeland Program Update, July 1983) are also summarized. You may request a copy of the Update from the Clearinghouse.

MT840410-493-X A new Draft Environmental Impact Statement on the Management of The Charles M. Russell National Wildlife Refuge in Montana has been received from the U.S. Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service. In August, 1980, a draft was printed and distributed for comment. Public meetings were held in Lewistown, Glasgow, and Missoula, Montana, as well as Washington, D.C. Litigation in June, 1981 interrupted the process. A delay of over three years necessitated cancelling the first DEIS and a new DEIS has now been prepared and is available for comment. Comments, verbal and written, received during the public review of the earlier DEIS have been incorporated into this document. The proposed action is an improved management program for the 1,094,301 acre refuge. The Clearinghouse copy is available for your review upon request. Written comments should be sent to:

Regional Director (WR)
U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
P. O. Box 25486, Denver Federal Center
Denver, CO 80225

Written comments will be accepted until June 8, 1984 and will be appreciated by May 15, 1984, if possible.

MT840411-494-S Montana Department of State Lands published a brochure concerning a Revised Plan for the Stillwater Project at Nye, Montana. Anaconda Minerals Company has signed a joint venture agreement with Chevron USA and Manville Products Co. to develop the MT840411-494-S platinum and palladium deposits in the Stillwater Valley near Nye, Montana. A June 1983 agreement, establishing a partnership called Stillwater Mining Co., named Chevron USA as the project operator. Chevron has revised the plan originally proposed by Anaconda. The mine would have one shaft on Mountain View Ridge and would be served by eleven, instead of two, portals. More important, the mill and tailing pond would lie at the mine, not six miles north in Hertzler Valley. It has been determined that the revisions to the plan call for a renewed study and work on a new draft environmental impact statement has been started. The new draft EIS will cover all issues in the former draft EIS and the concerns of people who sent letters or gave public testimony on the project in the summer of 1982.

The Department of State Lands and the Forest Service will hold another public meeting at 7:00 p.m., Monday, April 23, 1984 in the Absarokee High School. Those who cannot attend the meeting are encouraged to mail their comments by May 7, 1984, to:

Environmental Analysis Bureau
Montana Department of State Lands
Capitol Station, Helena, MT 59620

Upon request, we will send you a copy of the brochure.

Re: IGR Bulletin No. 042584

A tentative calendar of state agency sponsored meetings for the month of May is attached (see colored sheets). The calendar, as usual, is intended to only supplement routine agency notification and is not all inclusive. The use of the calendar is proving to be much more useful than fragmented notices.

The following pages list all items received in the Clearinghouse since our last bulletin, with a brief summary or description of the item. Included are notices regarding requests for federal financial assistance; notices concerning environmental impact statements, draft, final, additions, amendments, etc.; notices regarding direct federal development; federal funding awards; notices regarding subdivision analysis and preliminary proposals for low-cost housing; and other miscellaneous bulletins, notices, and documents that may be of interest to you.

You may use the request form below if you wish to pursue in more detail any item listed in the attached bulletin. Requests for information should be made by May 2 so information can be sent to you in time for review and/or comment.

MT840416-497-X The Great Falls City-County Planning Board submitted for review a revised draft copy of the Great Falls, Montana 1984-85 Transportation Improvement Program (TIP) which they will submit to the U. S. Department of Transportation. The TIP is a staged, multi-year capital improvements program for the transportation projects proposed for implementation during the period of the program.

The TIP was revised to include: (1) the purchase of three mini-buses by Cascade County Aging Services during calendar year 1984; and (2) the installation of a new traffic signal at the intersection of 38th Street and 2nd Avenue North in Great Falls. Information and/or comments concerning the TIP may be obtained from: John Mooney, Director Phone: (406)727-5881

They request comments be returned to them by May 14, 1984.

MT840416-498-F Montana Department of Social & Rehabilitation Services submitted to the U. S. Department of Health & Human Services three amendments to the Title XIX (Medicaid) Preprinted State Plan. The amendments are mandated by changes in federal regulations. However, they do not involve any required change in Montana's current Medicaid program. Changes cover the option of extending Medicaid eligibility for individuals enrolled in health maintenance organizations beyond the date of closure for Medicaid eligibility. They also reflect the changes in program requirements for use of contracts. The contract currently in use with their fiscal agent and other providers meets these requirements. The changes also reflect the options available to states on limiting recipients free choice of providers. SRS is not pursuing any of these options at this time as they would involve significant program changes. Because these are basically format changes, there will be no fiscal impact as a result. Information concerning the amendments may be obtained from:
Paul C. Miller, Administrative Officer
Medicaid Services Bureau, SRS Phone: (406)444-4540
P. O. Box 4210, Helena, MT 59620
Comments, if any, should be provided by May 14,1984.

The proposal should lower the rate of premature birth in Montana. The program proposes to develop and present a statewide public eduction campaign directed at women of childbearing age and will stress the necessity for early and continuous prenatal care and its relation to the prevention of preterm labor and delivery. Additional information and/or comments should be directed to:

MT840418-501-S Montana Department of Agriculture sent to the Clearinghouse the Final Environmental Impact Statement on Restricting Sales and Use of Endrin in Montana. This document is supplementary to the Draft EIS which was issued in July, 1983.

The Department's decision to implement Alternative 9 of the Draft EIS will be implemented through the rule described in the Final EIS, which was proposed for adoption and filed with the Secretary of State on March 19, 1984. Under this alternative the Department proposes to suspend sales and use of endrin and to cancel endrin registrations when alternatives are registered by the Environmental Protection Agency. Written comments and/or testimony submitted have been addressed in the Final EIS, and several modifications were made in the Draft EIS as a result. The Department's decision provides a reasonable solution to a difficult problem and mitigates most environmental and economic impacts to Montana and its citizens. The primary target audience for the program in Montana is local government. Disposal will eliminate a host of special uses, trespasses, and other management problems. The non-federal land lies adjacent to National Forest with approximately 70 acres within the Wild and Scenic River boundary. Acquisition will improve forest management and provide grizzly bear habitat. Information may be obtained from and comments sent to: Forest Supervisor

Re: IGR Clearinghouse Bulletin No. 050484

Because we continue to receive inquiries regarding the current required intergovernmental review procedures under Presidential Executive Order 12372, they are being listed here again for your information. A "signoff" from the Clearinghouse is no longer being issued. Instead, a letter is being sent to the applicant acknowledging receipt of the information submitted for review, assigning a State Application Identifier (SAI) number, and indicating that the proposal will be included in the next intergovernmental review bulletin.

Applicants should notify the Clearinghouse as early as possible in their planning process concerning their proposals. A notification of intent form; OR the first page of the Financial Assistance Application Form (Standard Form 424) and a short narrative; OR an abstract indicating the purpose, dollar amounts, contact person, address and phone number, and a preferred date for return of comments; OR a complete copy of the application should be submitted. Receipt will be acknowledged by letter, an SAI number will be assigned, and statewide notification will be provided through this bulletin. Inquiries and reviewers will be referred to the applicant for further information. Any comments received should be incorporated in the proposal and submitted by the applicant to the funding agency with the proposal. Copies of comments should also be filed with the Clearinghouse.

If you wish to pursue in more detail any of the items listed in the attached bulletin, you may use the request form below. Requests for information should be placed by May 11 to be forwarded to you in a timely manner for comment.

MT840516-542-F U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development has created two new programs. First, a Rental Rehabilitation Program which provides grants to states and units of general local government to help support the rehabilitation of privately owned real property to be used primarily for residential rental purposes. The program is aimed at benefitting lower income families. This program is not subject to intergovernmental review because state and local governments design and implement their own individual programs. The second program is the Housing Development Grant Program whose purpose is to increase the supply of standard, affordable housing in designated eligible areas determined by DHUD to be experiencing a severe shortage of decent rental housing and demonstrating a need for newly constructed or substantially rehabilitated housing. Interim rules for both programs, as well as the invitation for applications citing eligible locations, application instructions, program requirements and limitations, etc., will be published in the Federal Register and will be brought to your attention in this bulletin when available.

MT840518-548-F The Wyoming office of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM), U.S. Department of the Interior, issued a news letter concerning legal rights-of-way on public lands. Those who have had unauthorized rights-of-way on public land for more than seven years have less than three months to legalize these improvements without any charges. A right-of-way is required before any improvements such as roads, ditches, pipelines or communication sites are placed on public land. An annual rental based on the land and type of use is required once a right-of-way is issued. Anyone filing an application after July 31, 1984, on improvements that existed before October 21, 1976, will be required to pay filing and monitoring fees and back rental! General information and right-of-way application forms can be obtained at any Bureau of Land Management office.

MT840522-552-F Interstate Commerce Commission issued a Decision exempting the PLM Railcar Maintenance Company (PLM) from Commission jurisdiction thereby permitting PLM to provide switching services for about 750 cars per year for four shippers located next to PLM's facilities on trackage that provides access to Burlington Northern Railroad lines. PLM will not perform any transportation service beyond the switching service it now provides. The operation is clearly of limited scope; there is no indication that regulation is necessary to protect the involved shippers from abuse of market power; there is no indication that any vital interest of shippers, competitors, or communities could be adversely affected by a grant of the requested exemption; and the action does not affect the interests of railroad employees and will not significantly affect either the quality of the human environment or energy conservation. The Decision shall be effective June 20th. Petitions for reconsideration must be filed by June 11, 1984.

MT840531-553-S Montana Department of Commerce, Community Development Division, will conduct a series of regional workshops concerning applications for the 1984 Montana Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program. Applications for the 1984 Montana CDBG Competition will be conducted during the first two weeks of June. See dates and locations in the attached calendar. Application guidelines and materials will be distributed at each of the workshops. Application guidelines will also be sent to each county, city and town. By scheduling a series of regional workshops, the Department hopes to make information on the CDBG program accessible and convenient for local officials and other interested persons. The actual time for presentation of materials at the workshops will be about three hours; the balance of the scheduled time will be available for participants to discuss the program or individual projects with the staff. Applications will be due September 15, 1984. You may call the Division's CDBG staff at 444-2488 if you have any questions regarding the CDBG application workshops.

MT840531-554-S Montana Department of Highways sent for review and comment the Draft Section 4(f) Statement for the Darby - North and South Bridge Structure and Approach Project. The statement sets forth the proposal that there is no feasible nor prudent alternative to the use of land from the Hannon Memorial Fishing Site, and that their proposal includes all possible planning to minimize harm resulting from the use of a portion of that site. The proposed project consists mainly of replacing a narrow, sub-standard bridge over the Bitterroot River, south of Darby, MT, in Ravalli County. The project is 0.8 mile in length and would basically realign the river crossing, eliminating two sharp curves at the ends of the bridge. The present bridge, built in 1926, would be replaced. The proposed project will provide a safer and more efficient roadway through this area. A copy of the Draft Section 4(f) Statement is on file at the Clearinghouse, as well as maps, agreements with the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks, etc. Information concerning the proposal may be obtained from:

MT840531-557-F A motion was filed May 17, 1984 by several protestants jointly asking for summary denial of the Tongue River Railroad Company's (TRRC) application for approval to construct and operate a rail line to transport coal from several proposed mine sites in Rosebud and Powder River Counties in Montana. The protestants submit MT840531-557-F (cont'd) that TRRC's application and related submissions demonstrate a clear intent to violate Section 2(c) of the Mineral Lands Leasing Act of 1920, 30 U.S.C., 202, by integrating coal leasing and coal transportation -- that through its affiliates and sister companies, TRRC will simultaneously hold federal coal leases and transport that coal on its own proposed rail line. Therefore, the Interstate Commerce Commission's Administrative Law Judge issued a Decision that the motion raises questions that require an early initial determination by the Commission and that the hearing scheduled for June 5, 1984, in Miles City, Montana, be postponed until further order of the Commission. A copy of the Decision is available upon request from the Clearinghouse.

MT840531-558-F A Progress Report from the Flathead National Forest has been received indicating that the Proposed Forest Plan Supplement will be available for comment sometime around August 15, 1984. The original Draft Environmental Impact Statement, which was published in March, 1982, had to be revised to include the reevaluation of the wilderness potential of the roadless areas. There will be a 90 day comment period when the DEIS Supplement is published and we will keep you informed. The full DEIS Supplement is 500 pages. A Summary DEIS Supplement will be 50 pages. A packet of maps of alternatives and roadless areas (needed to properly review the full DEIS or the Summary) will be available as well as the Proposed Forest Planning Supplement. A copy of the Progress Report newsletter is available to you from the Clearinghouse upon request. Copies of the documents mentioned above will be available in the local Flathead and Missoula County libraries when published.

MT840531-559-X Montana Department of State Lands and the U.S. Department of the Interior sent for review a Draft Environmental Impact Statement for Westmoreland Resource's Revised Plan at the Absaloka Mine in Big Horn County. The document analyzes in detail the environmental impacts of Westmoreland's plans for the next 13 years. These plans would extend mining into Sections 24 and 25 of T1N, R37E, and sections 19 and 30 of T1N, R38E. The document also analyzes Westmoreland's long-range plans, which cover the next 34 years. If comments or new information require major changes in the analysis, a final EIS will be issued before a decision is made on the proposed mining and reclamation plan. Additional information on Westmoreland's plan or copies of the DEIS may be obtained from:

MT840601-561-F The State of Montana appealed the Interstate Commerce Commission's decision granting the Burlington Northern Railroad Co. abandonment of the line of railroad known as the Geraldine Line between M.P. 71.00 near Spring Creek Junction and M.P. 137.14 at the end of the line near Geraldine, a distance of about 66.12 miles, in Fergus, Judith Basin and Chouteau Counties, MT. Montana stated that BN's acquisition of the line in 1981 was approved because it was represented that they would continue service and rehabilitate the line. BN did not rehabilitate the line and now has asked for its abandonment because of its poor condition. Interstate Commerce Commission have issued a Decision ordering that the appeal is accepted and will be heard. ICC will issue a Decision on this point by July 26, 1984.

Re: IGR Clearinghouse Bulletin No. 061284

The attached bulletin lists all the items received in the Clearinghouse since our last bulletin of June 1st. With summer vacations being scheduled in all agencies - local, state and federal - the number of items received varies considerably. Therefore, we plan to publish the bulletin when we have enough items to report to make it worthwhile - usually weekly, and at least three times a month. We hope the delay in noting some items will not seriously affect the response or comment time involved. If you care to inquire or comment concerning an item in the bulletin, please be aware of the occaisional limited review period requested.

You may use the request form below if you wish to pursue in more detail an item listed in the bulletin. Requests for information should be made by June 19 so information can be sent in time for your review or comment.

MT840612-575-X Montana Dept. of Health & Environmental Sciences, Air Quality Bureau has applied to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for a $50,321 grant to assist Tribal Governments in the operation of ambient air quality programs. EPA funds have been made available to tribal governments to operate an air quality program independent of the State's. It is very inefficient, however, to ignore state resources for operating an ambient air quality network. These funds will be utilized for the purpose of assisting at least four tribal governments in the maintenance, operation, calibration, and auditing (scientific) of an ambient air quality surveillance network. The State will provide technical expertise and operational assistance in maintaining these networks in accordance with EPA and Montana quality assurance guidelines. MT840613-591-X The Final Environmental Impact 4(f) Statement (FEIS) for Project No. F 8-2(6) 34 & 38, Helena-West, has been received from the U.S. Federal Highway Administration and the Montana Department of Highways. The FEIS addresses a proposal to improve 6.5 miles of Highway U.S. 12 located immediately west of Helena, MT. U.S. Route 12 is the major east-west connection between Helena and Interstate 90. It is a narrow, two-lane highway connecting to a four-lane highway at the base of MacDonald Pass and a four-lane highway about one mile east of Helena. Improvements are considered necessary to provide for the existing and projected traffic demands. Major considerations of this FEIS include traffic volume, historical and cultural impacts, right-of-way requirements and the impact on the City of Helena water transmission mains. The FEIS considers environmental impacts on the entire corridor even though the proposed improvements may be built over a period of several years. MT840625-608-F U. S. Dept. of the Interior, Fish & Wildlife Service (FWS), is establishing a brief training workshop for survey crew leaders. The training will be conducted in the Fort Collins, Colorado area and a charge of about $200 per person will be made to cover costs. The FWS is currently preparing "Black-footed Ferret Survey Guidelines" and crew leaders participating in surveys for the black-footed ferret will be required to have such formal training.

FWS is requesting names and addresses of consulting agencies and individuals who conduct environmental surveys on public lands, or anyone who may need or desire such training. They will be contacted and the number of individuals desiring the workshops will then be determined. The workshops will be scheduled to provide

MT840625-612-X Montana Department of Health & Environmental Sciences, Water Quality Bureau has also applied to the Environmental Protection

MT840625-612-X (cont'd) Agency for $299,665 federal funds for their State Public Water Supervisory Program. $99,889 additional state funds will also be used for the program they administer. The Water Quality Bureau has been given full responsibility by EPA for administration of the Safe Drinking Water Act. That program is concerned with public water supplies - community systems (cities, towns, subdivisions and trailer courts) and non-community systems (mostly bars, campgrounds, cafes and motels). One of the most important aspects is monitoring water served from these supplies to ensure bacterial, chemical and radiological contents remain within safe limits. Additionally, each public water supply system is inspected annually. Montana regulations require the Bureau to review and approve all construction and modifications to public water and sewer systems. Assistance in operator training is also provided under this program. Additional information may be obtained from:

MT840709-016-F The Interstate Commerce Commission issued their Certificate and Decision permitting the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company and the Union Pacific Railroad to discontinue trackage rights over a line of railroad between Silver Bow and Butte, Montana. The effective date of this Decision will be July 27, 1984. A copy of the Decision is available to you upon request.

MT840709-017-X Jim Rathbun, Forest Supervisor of the Kootenai National Forest, announced that the U. S. Forest Service will discontinue any further involvement in the planning of an environmental analysis process for the proposed Great Northern Mountain Ski Area. The Forest Service's feasibility study found that the proposed ski area does not have a probable chance to be economically successful. A letter summarizing the rationale to stop Forest Service activity on the project, was signed and issued to the proponents and became public information on July 2, 1984. The Forest Service will not give further consideration to a Special Use Permit for development of a ski facility. Copies of the Feasibility Analysis for the Great Northern Mountain Ski Area Proposal and the Forest Service announcement are available to you upon request from the Clearinghouse. The Decision is subject to administrative appeal. A written notice of appeal of the decision must specifically identify the decision being appealed, the decision date, the Forest Officer who made the decision, the relief desired, a statement of reasons supporting the appeal, and should be sent to:

Jim Rathbun, Forest Supervisor

MT840709-018-S Montana Department of State Lands issued their Final Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for the Montco Mine in Rosebud County. A draft EIS was issued by the Department in May, 1982. The MT840709-018-S (cont'd) draft document was revised, and this final EIS is the result. Montco proposes to open a coal strip mine in the Tongue River Valley in Rosebud County. The Commissioner of State Lands must decide whether to approve the permit as applied for by Montco, to deny the permit, or to approve the permit subject to stipulations. Montco proposes to mine 186.1 million tons of coal over a 24 year period at a maximum rate of 12 million tons per year from both private and state coal leases. The mine plan area covers 10,171 acres, of which 5,322 would be disturbed for mining, roads, and soil and overburden stockpiles and 218 would be disturbed for facilities.

The Department of State Lands has determined that the proposed mining and reclamation plan may "significantly affect the quality of the human environment." Therefore, before making a decision on the company's permit, the EIS has been prepared. After evaluation of the EIS and Montco's mine application, the Department of State Lands may take one of the following four alternatives: (1) approve the permit as proposed, (2) deny the permit, (3) selectively deny the permit (for example - specify areas), or (4) approve the permit with stipulations. A copy of the EIS is on file at the Clearinghouse and is available for you to review if you wish to request it.

MT840709-019-X The U.S. Office of Surface Mining Reclamation & Enforcement (OSM) U.S. Department of the Interior, have also issued their Final Environmental Impact Statement on the Proposed Montco Mine, Rosebud County, Montana. They propose concurrence with the Montana State Decision on the permit application Montco submitted for the mine. Their abstract of the EIS is as follows: "Montco proposes to open a surface coal mine in the Tongue River Valley near Ashland, Montana. Mining in the propposed permit area would produce 25.5 million tons of coal from about 500 acres, reaching a maximum production level of 6 million tons per year. The mine would produce 186 million tons of coal from about 5,000 acres over its anticipated 24-year life, reaching a maximum production level of 12 million tons of coal per year. The coal would be shipped via a proposed new railroad line along the Tongue River. The mine would cause moderately significant social, fiscal, and esthetic impacts during its life. Impacts on other resources would not be significant in that the capacity of those resources to meet anticipated uses would largely be maintained during mining or would be restored by reclamation." *This EIS is subject to the provisions of Governor's Executive Order 6-84. Re: IGR Clearinghouse Bulletin No. 073184

The federal government is in the process of reviewing OMB Circular A-102 which governs many financial and management aspects of federal funding to state, local and federally recognized Indian tribal governments. Public comment has been invited and, for Montana, is being coordinated by Tom Crosser in the Governor's Office of Budget and Program Planning. A Federal Register announcement on June 18 (pgs. 24958-24959) describes the review process and the Circular's "attachments" which cover such topics as cash depositories, bonding and insurance, financial reporting, payment, matching, application forms, property, procurement and audits. Comments to be considered for inclusion in the state response must be submitted to Mr. Crosser, 444-4895, no later than August 20.

The attached bulletin lists all items received in the Clearinghouse since the July 20 bulletin. You may use the request form below if you wish to pursue in more detail any item listed. Inquiries about items listed in this bulletin should be submitted by August 10 so the information may be sent to you in time for review and/or comment.

Please note that attached to this bulletin is a tentative calendar of state agency sponsored meetings in August (see colored sheets).

MT840720-046-F U.S. Department of Energy, Bonneville Power Administration (BPA) Public Involvement Office, sent a copy of the Standard to Allow Spill of Water for Anadromous Fish Passage and their notice of intent to develop policies and procedures and solicit recommendations. Federal and non-federal electric power project owners and operators, fish and wildlife agencies, Indian Tribes, and Pacific Northwest electric ratepayers will be affected. Therefore, recommendations and comments are being requested.

BPA is responsible for the protection, mitigation, and enhancement of fish and wildlife while insuring the Pacific Northwest an adequate, efficient, economical, and reliable power supply. BPA intends to develop a standard which will make available, from hydroelectric generation, adequate water to allow for the spill requirements of migrating juvenile salmon and steelhead. This standard is needed to reduce excessive mortality among juvenile fish which results from their passage through certain federal hydroelectric dams. Spilling water over the dams will provide an alternate route for fish passage and reduce the level of mortality. Submit your recommendations and comments to:

Donna L. Geiger, Public Involvement Manager, BPA,
P. O. Box 12999, Portland, OR 97212

For additional information, you may contact:

George E. Eskridge Phone: (406)329-3060

MT841108-226-S Homestake Mining Company and American Copper & Nickel Company have filed joint venture plans to build a new mill and underground gold mine, known as the Jardine Project, on the west side of Mineral Hill in Jardine, Montana. Jardine lies at 6,400 feet in a mountain valley at the southwestern end of the Absaroka mountain range. By road, the town lies 5 miles northeast of Gardiner, Montana. One small steam, Bear Creek, flows south through Jardine, eventually emptying into the Yellowstone River. The mine and mill operations would mostly cover private land. U.S. Department of the Interior, Forest Service, and the Montana Department of State Lands are presently preparing a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the project.

A public meeting to record the issues to be analyzed in the DEIS is to be held in the Gardiner High School cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 14, 1984. The purpose of the DEIS is to provide a forum for comment on the agencies' analysis of the company's plan. The EIS doesn't lay out how mining will be regulated, or whether or not a company can mine. It will contain a complete analysis of the proposed mining and milling plan - what will happen to people, the environment, government, and businesses. You are asked to participate in public meeting if you are interested. Those who cannot attend the meeting are encouraged to mail their comments to:

Montana Department of State Lands Phone: (406)444-2711

Capitol Station, Helena, MT 59620

Written concerns will be considered equally with those voiced at the public meeting. Written comments are requested by November 30, 1984. The public meeting will be held November 14,1984.

MT841113-230-S Montana Department of Commerce sent a copy of Interstate Commerce Commission's Notice of Exemption on Burlington Northern Railway's proposed abandonment of their line of railroad known MT841113-230-S (cont'd) as the Phosphate Spur (a line of railroad between milepost 1.07 near Phosphate and milepost 4.65 - a distance of 3.58 miles) in Powell County, Montana. No traffic has moved over this line for at least two years and therefore, this qualifies the railroad to file a notice of exemption and avoid the usual abandonment procedures. The abandonment will be effective November 30, 1984 unless petitions to stay the effective date were filed prior to November 13, 1984.

MT841113-231-S Montana Department of Commerce also sent a copy of Burlington Northern Railway's notice of intent to abandon its branchline known as the Newlon Junction to Richey Line. BNRR intends to file their abandonment application on or about November 27th. Parties interested in filing protests or comments must submit them to the Montana Department of Commerce no later than December 14, 1984. If no protests are received within 30 days after the application is filed, the Interstate Commerce Commission will grant the abandonment request and issue a certificate which permits abandonment to occur within 75 days after the application is filed. MT841113-232-X U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, sent to the Clearinghouse copies of the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) and Proposed Forest Plan Supplements for the Flathead National Forest. The Proposed Flathead National Forest Land and Resource Management Plan, published in March 1983, remains unchanged except for the replacements or additions included in these Supplements. The original comments received on the March 1983 DEIS and Proposed Forest Plan are not incorporated into these Supplements inasmuch as the evaluation of those comments has not yet been completed. They will be evaluated along with the new comments received on the Supplements and then addressed in the Final EIS.

The Supplement to the Flathead National Forest's 1983 DEIS contains an inventory and evaluation of the roadless resource on the Flathead National Forest. It includes analysis of a range of alternatives beyond those presented in the original document and recommendation for additions to the Wilderness Preservation System. Added information is also displayed on grizzly bear management that integrates into forest planning.

Numerous informal opportunities for groups and individuals to meet and review these documents are being planned. Open house sessions will be announced through the news media. Because the DEIS and Supplements are very expensive to reproduce and mail, they have been placed in local libraries where they may be used at your convenience. Requests for information should be sent to:

MT841114-234-X Polson School District 23 has applied to the U.S. Department of Education for $54,188 federal funds to continue their Indian Education programs. MT841121-255-F On June 2, 1983, the Tongue River Railroad Company (TRRC) filed an application with the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) to construct and operate an 89 mile rail line between Miles City, MT and two terminal points in Rosebud and Powder River Counties. On January 6, 1984, TRRC filed an application for authority to issue short term and long term notes. March 16, 1984, ICC directed that the proceedings be consolidated and assigned to an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) for oral hearings. On May 17, 1984, a motion for summary denial of TRRC's application was filed with ICC. May 29, 1984, the ALJ postponed the hearings and certified the protestant's motion to the ICC. June 6, 1984, TRRC replied to the protestant's motion and the motion was denied by ICC. However, ICC requested that the parties include in their future submissions further discussion of issues raised by the protestant's motion. The protestants requested further discussion of the issues raised.

The protestants contend that TRRC plans to violate Section 2(c) of the Mineral Lands Leasing Act of 1920 (Leasing Act) by integrating coal leasing and coal transportation. ICC has now issued a decision that while they agree TRRC may violate Section 2(c) of the Leasing Act, they are not presently doing so, and the protestant's motion for summary denial is denied; that the ALJ shall expeditiously reschedule hearings; and that the U.S. Departments of Justice and Interior be kept advised of the proceedings. This Decision became effective November 9, 1984.

MT841204-287-X National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior, sent a news release advising that a Draft Land Protection Plan for Big Hole National Battlefield in Western Montana is now available for public review and comment. There are five privately owned interests within the Battlefield, including four irrigation ditch rights-of-ways totalling 6.90 acres out of the total acreage of 655.61 acres. There is also one-half mineral interest outstanding on 295.72 acres. Of these private interests, the National Park Service is interested only in possible acquisition through exchange for the portion of Ditch 2, owned by Trail Creek Water Association, that would require traversing the river within the park area. Under this proposal, installation of an inverted siphon to cross the river would take place on private lands outside the Battlefield. Concern for protection of the battle scene commemorated at Big Hole prompted consideration of the exchange after Trail Creek Water Association announced its intention to reactivate the ditch which has not been utilized since the 1920's. MT841205-291-F The Clearinghouse has received a copy of Farmers Home Administration's Natural Resource Management Guide for Montana. The Draft Guide summarizes the various standards or types of federal and state protection that apply to the natural resources, land uses, and environmental factors that have been designated as worthy of some form of protection or consideration. A public information meeting concerning the Guide will be held on December 12, 1984, at the Federal Building, Room 540, in Bozeman, Montana, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The document is intended to serve two purposes. MT841205-292-S Montana Department of Health & Environmental Sciences sent a Public Notice concering their intention to modify eight (8) municipal wastewater discharge permits as follows:

1. Silver Bow Metro Sewer District #1 -
   Receiving Water: Silver Bow Creek
2. City of Missoula -
   Receiving Water: Clark Fork River
3. City of Kalispell -
   Receiving Water: Ashley Creek
4. City of Havre -
   Receiving Water: Milk River
5. City of Great Falls -
   Receiving Water: Missouri River
6. City of Bozeman -
   Receiving Water: East Gallatin River
7. City of Billings -
   Receiving Water: Yellowstone River
8. City of Livingston -
   Receiving Water: Yellowstone River

Proposed modifications to permits issued by the Department to the above listed municipalities for discharge of treated domestic wastewater will reflect a change in the Department's policy regarding oil and grease concentration limitations. The policy has changed from a maximum allowable discharge of 10 milligrams per liter of oil and grease in any grab sample to a 10 milligram per liter monthly average of daily values. Fifteen (15) milligrams per liter will be the maximum allowable oil and grease concentration in any grab sample. The permits will also contain a statement, "In addition to the concentration limitations for oil and grease, there shall be no discharge which causes a visible oil sheen in the receiving stream." The reason for this policy change was the consideration of the bias and error inherent in oil and grease sampling analyses. Public comments are invited. Comments should be directed to:

Water Quality Bureau Phone: (406)444-2406
Montana Department of Health & Environmental Sciences
Cogswell Bldg., Room A-206, Helena, MT 59620

All comments should be received prior to January 7, 1985.
